

ROBERTS MOVED.

He Sends a Dispatch to the British War Office Dated at Brandfort City.

MOUNTED INFANTRY AT THE VET RIVER

The Rest of the Force Will Be Moved There at Once as the Railway Has Been Repaired.

The Boers Have Heavily Fortified the Hills Facing the British in Front of Elandsburg—The British Shelling the Hills.

London, May 5.—The war office has issued the following from Lord Roberts, dated Brandfort, Friday, May 4: "The mounted infantry have gone on to the Vet river. The rest of the force will march there tomorrow. The railway has been repaired to Brandfort."

"Hunter reports very satisfactory news—that the passage of the Vaal has been carried at Windfontein without opposition."

From this dispatch it is seen that the mounted infantry with Lord Roberts, among which are the Canadians, have picked their horses on the south bank of the Vet river, 18 miles north of Brandfort. The head of Lord Roberts' columns has advanced 32 miles from Kares Siding in two days, or 53 miles north of Bloemfontein. Lord Roberts is in Brandfort.

Little power was spent. The British work was hard marching, the Boers retiring out of the reach of the British shells. The correspondents supplement Lord Roberts' plain statements with a few details. As Gen. Hutton, with the first mounted infantry brigade, drew near Brandfort, he saw a khaki-clad body of troops ahead of him. He was surprised, but thought they must be British. Soon, however, they opened fire upon the British, who replied heavily. They were the Irish-American brigade from Lorenzo Marques, and it is reported that the Irish lost severely.

The Boer flag was flying on Brandfort as the British entered the town. Several British wounded were found at the hospital. The Boer postmaster gave up the keys of the public buildings to Capt. Ross.

Lord Kitchener arrived at Brandfort at noon, and Lord Roberts at dusk.

Gen. French's cavalry is sweeping the country north of the Vaal. The expedition is that the infantry advance will be continued toward Kroonstad immediately.

Although no prisoners were taken, and although no hot pursuit was attempted, the news greatly cheers London. Nevertheless it has not been relieved with the capture of the Boers. The first successes of Lord Roberts.

Gen. Hunter's crossing the Vaal at Windfontein brings the relief of the king, 195 miles beyond, almost within a calculable interval. It is now regarded as quite possible that Mafeking may be succeeded before the anniversary of the queen's birthday.

Wepener is to be garrisoned with a strong force from Gen. Chermisford's column, commanded by Lord Castle-town.

Driving the Boers Out With Shells. At Brandfort, Cape Colony, May 4.—A British six-inch wire gun opened unexpectedly on the Boer larger water tank at a distance of seven and a half miles, throwing a shell with wonderful accuracy and causing a hasty retreat of the burghers. The bombardment continued to-day at all points by howitzers and field guns supported by two companies of the Munster regiment, the Boers being driven from shelter and their guns being put out of action.

Boers Well Fortified.

Ladyship, May 4.—The Boers have altered their guns on the range of hills facing the British in front of Elandsburg, and have posted a Long Tom on a hill in the direction of West-senck.

SENSATIONAL SHOOTING.

A Baptist Minister Almost Instantly Killed at a District Court Stenographer.

Charleston, S. C., May 4.—A sensational shooting occurred at Bamber, this state. Rev. W. E. Johnson, pastor of the Baptist church, shot and almost instantly killed at a district court stenographer of the judicial district. Trouble between the two began over the painting of a fence between the premises of John R. Bell, father of the deceased, and the Baptist parsonage. Bellingham met Rev. Mr. Johnson, who was armed with a double-barreled shotgun. The families connected with the affair are the most influential in the city.

Two Hawaiian Officers Filled.

Washington, May 5.—The president has sent to the senate the nomination of Sanford B. Dole, of Hawaii, to be governor of Hawaii, and Henry E. Cooper, of Hawaii, to be secretary of Hawaii.

BRITISH STEAMER STRANDED.

Six Men Known to Be Drowned and Probably Fifteen Others Who Are Missing.

Cape Henry, Va., May 5.—The British steamer Virginia, capt. Charles Samuel, from Desquibus for Baltimore, with a cargo of iron ore, and with a crew of 26 men, including one stowaway, stranded on Diamond Shoals about 4 p. m. Wednesday, May 3, during thick, heavy weather. The crew took to the boats and attempted to leave the ship. One boat with 15 of the crew got away, but the others were swamped and six men drowned. The remaining five got back on the steamer, where they remained until Friday morning, when they were rescued and brought ashore by the crews of the Creeds Hill and Cape Hatteras life-saving stations.

The ship stranded about 12 miles from shore, and, owing to thick, squally weather, which has prevailed for several days, was not discovered until the life saver until Friday morning. The rescue was made in the station life boats. Much difficulty was encountered, the boats starting early in the morning, but were not able to land until 4 o'clock in the afternoon. The ship is now nearly all under water and is a total loss.

The following were known to be drowned: Samuel Park, steward; P. St. George Waller, chief engineer, and two seamen, Messrs. Harris and Olsen, and two firemen, names unknown.

The boat with 15 of the crew which got away from the ship was last seen running off shore before the wind and was apparently safe.

PASSENGER TRAIN WRECKED.

One Man Killed and Two Injured, but All the Passengers Escaped Injury.

Pittsburgh, Pa., May 5.—Passenger train No. 107, west-bound, on the Wheeling division of the Baltimore & Ohio road, was wrecked east of Gastonville. Patrick J. Horan, track inspector, was killed almost instantly. Freeman B. H. Lytle, locomotive engineer, was severely injured, and Engineer A. McFarney was scalded about the chest and head and ankle sprained. None of the passengers was hurt.

The train was going at about a 20-mile speed when the curve just east of Gastonville was struck and the engine was thrown over into the ditch, the tender taking the other side of the track and the combination baggage and coach following, going in between, thus blocking the balance of the train and letting the passengers escape with only a severe shaking up.

Investigation showed that some miscreant had driven a spike into the track in such a way that when the engine struck it it jumped the track.

TROOPS WERE ACTIVE.

Gen. Dill Makes a Report of What Transpired at the Battle of Elandsburg.

Washington, May 5.—The war department received the following report from Gen. Dill: "During the month of April we captured from the enemy 20 pieces of artillery, 1,200 rifles, considerable ammunition and a large amount of stores and other property. During the early part of the month the enemy was in the mountains in the northern and southern parts of Luzon and in some of the Visayan islands."

"Our reported losses for the month of April were: Killed, 10 officers and 120 enlisted men; wounded, 10 officers and 1,200 enlisted men. The number of recent loss in Samar of 10 killed and a number wounded has not yet been reported. The small detachments scouting in the mountains in the interior of the island. The enemy's losses, officially reported, were 1,200 killed, 1,200 captured, and 1,200 captured. Leading Filipinos express confidence in the early pacification of the islands. They say the war is over, and the leading insurgents are surrendering."

Plague Wiped Out.

San Francisco, May 5.—When the last steamer left Honolulu on April 27 the board of health had decided that if no further outbreak of plague occurred in Honolulu before April 30, all quarantine would be raised on the morning of that date. It had been 13 days since the last case, or rather since the death of the last case. The routine of lifting the quarantine will be complete. It will be merely withdrawal of restrictions to shipping and travel.

Methodist Conference Work.

Chicago, May 5.—Struggling under an avalanche of memorials and resolutions, the Methodist general conference began the real business of its long session. With excited debate it took action to check alleged mercenary tendencies of some of its bishops. Then it appointed committees to make special investigations of some of the great department work of the church.

Fortification Bill Passed.

Washington, May 5.—The fortifications appropriation bill was passed in the senate. It carries $775,025, an increase of $60,140 over the house measure. Before passage an amendment authorizing proportional payment for pneumatic dynamite guns, cartridges and ammunition was agreed to.

Double Hanging in Louisiana.

New Orleans, May 5.—John Greer and Charles Brown were hanged at New Orleans for the murder of John Sorrell at Oliver Station, La., last August. All were Negroes.

TODD TESTIFIES.

His Private Secretary a Witness in the Culton Trial at Frankfort, Ky.

STILL MORE SENSATIONAL TESTIMONY

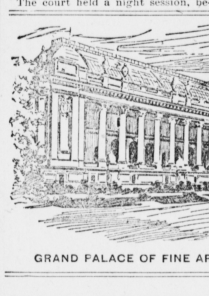

Taylor is Said to Have Issued Pardons to Powers, Whittaker, Finley and Possibly W. H. Culton.

Private Secretary Todd's Testimony Implicated Henry T. Youtsey in the Assassination—A Night Session of the Court Held.

Frankfort, Ky., May 5.—Some of the most important testimony yet brought out in connection with the assassination of William Goebel was brought out last night in the trial hearing for bill in the Culton case. Mr. Todd, private secretary to Mr. Taylor, was the star witness of the day, and gave testimony nearly as sensational as that of Culton himself. When on the stand in his own behalf Wednesday, during the course of the evidence, he testified that he first saw a pardon had been issued to Culton, but later said he was not sure as to Culton, but thought he entered a pardon for him at the same time. He entered the other three pardons and those to Caleb Powers and John Davis, March 10.

The court held a night session, but the trial was adjourned until tomorrow.

GRAND PALACE OF FINE ART AT THE PARIS EXPOSITION.

gining at 7:30. Ex-State Auditor L. C. Norman testified that prior to the assassination he overheard a remark by Judge George Deane, of Lexington, to the effect that "somebody ought to kill Goebel, and that Gov. Taylor ought to pardon the man that did it." The tenor of Deane's conversation was that Goebel's death would save the lives of other people, as it would put an end to the contest, which was causing trouble. Witness was shocked by such a statement and communicated the remark to Mr. Goebel.

McKinzie Todd, private secretary to Gov. Taylor, said he saw Culton and Youtsey at the governor's office several times. He did not know Jim Wharton, Howard. Saw many armed men in the governor's office the day of the big mountain excursion. Asked if any guns in the office of the secretary of state, witness said he saw two there on the Saturday prior to the assassination. Youtsey was in the room and later picked up one of the guns and took a position near the window. Witness had left the room, but could see Youtsey, who was acting strangely. He went in and asked Youtsey what he was going to do. Youtsey said he thought there was trouble in the legislative building and that "if it started he would be prepared." "You don't mean to shoot out that window if trouble starts in the house, do you?" I asked. Youtsey said he would not start any trouble, but would be prepared to protect the building if it did start.

Todd continued: "I was in the reception room of the governor's office at the time of the assassination. The shots seemed to come from the west end of the building. I did not know that Goebel had been killed until John Davis ran in and said, 'The war is on. I went with Davis to his house, and he got a gun. I can't say whether it was a gun or not, but I saw it.' The door to the office of the secretary of state was opened while we were gone."

Police Printer George G. Fetter told of printing badges for Caleb Powers and John Powers, which were used by the 1,200 mountain men on January 25. Fetter said he was in the state house yard when Goebel was shot. He could not tell where the first shot came from, but the subsequent firing appeared to be in the hall of the executive building. Jack Chinn, who accompanied Goebel, did not draw a pistol.

Private Dudley Williamson, who was with the soldiers in the arsenal, said they got marching orders one hour before the assassination, and were uniformed and armed at the time of the tragedy. The soldiers did not know what had happened till they got almost to the state house.

Death of Bishop Jackson.

Montgomery, Ala., May 5.—Bishop H. M. Jackson, until recently assistant bishop of the Episcopal diocese of Alabama, died here of pneumonia. He was a Virginian by birth, and was a member of the new class of the University of Virginia.

MILITARY LEGISLATION.

The Senate Passes a Bill Which Completely Reorganizes the Army Staff Arrangements.

Washington, May 5.—The session of the senate was rendered especially notable by the passage, after a debate lasting only three hours, of the army reorganization bill. In military circles the measure is regarded as one of the most important of the present session. It practically revolutionizes the present staff arrangement of the army. It proposes to change the present system of permanent appointments in certain staff corps to one of detail by a gradual process as the officers now in those corps go out of active service. As vacancies occur in departments of the adjutant general, the inspector general, quartermaster general and commissary general they are to be filled by details from the line, the details to be temporary and not to exceed four years.

The new system is not applied to the corps of engineers, medical department, pay department or judge advocate general's department. The bill discontinues the regimental organization of the artillery and establishes an artillery corps of two branches, viz: 125 batteries of coast artillery and 15 batteries of field artillery, with a total of 1745 men. It provides for an increase of 100 in the corps of cadets at West Point, two at each of the other military academies, and 10 more to the present number of 20 from the United States at large. The rank of the commanding general of the army is to be that of lieutenant general, and that of the adjutant general to major general, the latter being the incumbency of the present adjutant general, Gen. Corbin. The president is empowered to place on the retired list any officer who has been suspended from duty by sentence of court-martial or by legislative order in military service.

Baking Powder Economy

The manufacturers of Royal Baking Powder have always declined to produce a cheap baking powder at the sacrifice of quality.

The Royal is made from the most highly refined and wholesome ingredients, and is the embodiment of all the excellence possible to be attained in the highest class baking powder.

Royal Baking Powder costs only a fair price, and is cheaper at its price than any similar article.

Samples of mixtures made in imitation of baking powders, but containing alum, are frequently distributed from door to door, or given away in grocery stores. Such mixtures are dangerous to use in food, and in many cities their sale is prohibited by law. Alum is a corrosive poison, and all physicians condemn baking powders containing it.

FOXPORT.

O. W. Martin was in Maysville Tuesday.

Pearl Millon is visiting friends at Ewing.

Dr. Irvine of Tolleboro was in our midst Saturday.

Elder Dobyns of Carmel passed through here Sunday.

Hattie May Eckman of Carmel was calling in our village Tuesday.

Robert Pollitt and wife of Maysville were recent guests of J. W. Martin.

Mrs. P. E. Martin and children are visiting her parents at Maplowood farm.

P. E. Millon is having his mill taken from Maysville to the Fountain tract of timber this week and will begin sawing soon.

The "Grain Reaper" again visited our community, reaping the bearded grain and the flowers that grow between.

"Uncle" Henry Cassidy, past 80, and Vivian Ogden, aged 17, both being hurt last week.

After blasting a 20-inch layer of stone out of O. W. Martin's new eastern, the diggers discovered a tiny vein of oil, which has created quite a good deal of excitement and conjecture as to the probabilities of getting it in paying quantities.

George E. Neal, aged 30, of Mt. Olivet and Miss Salome Kern, aged 24, were granted marriage license Thursday at Cincinnati.

Business is a condition characterized by a disturbance of the digestive organs. The stomach is debilitated, the liver torpid, the bowels constipated. There is a heaving of food, pain in the bowels, distention, coated tongue and vomiting. It is the undigested or partly digested food and the bile, which enters the stomach and liver. Tablets aid the disturbance of the stomach and create a healthy appetite. They also give the liver a healthy action and regulate the bowels. Try them and you are certain to be much pleased with the result. For sale by J. Jas. Wood & Son, Cincinnati.

RIVER NEWS.

The Queen City for Pittsburgh will pass up tonight.

The Sun has been withdrawn from the Maysville-Cincinnati trade.

The Avalon is due up for Pomeroy tonight and the Bonanza is due down.

Towboats on their way up with empties have to tie up on account of low water.

Yesterday was a rough day on the river, the wind making it almost impossible for boats to navigate.

Low water is seriously interfering with navigation just at present; and this is the excursion season, too.

The City of Pittsburgh will pass up this afternoon for as far up the river as she can get on the scant water.

The Monongahela River Consolidated Coal and Coke Company during the month of April shipped South from Pittsburgh 170 barges of coal and 6 model barges loaded with steel rails.

No coals were shipped during the month owing to the low condition of the streams, which was something unusual for April.

The coal aggregated about three million bushels, making the shipment since the opening of navigation last December close to 51,000,000 bushels of coal.

The Chief Engineers sent to Congress the report of Major Bixby, the engineer officer in charge of the improvement of the Ohio river, containing the result of the survey of the Ohio River from the mouth of the Big Miami, with a view to the construction of movable dams and to provide six feet of water at low water.

Major Bixby did not complete the survey, and asks for a further appropriation of $45,000 with which to do so. He recommends the construction of twenty-four movable dams with locks, at an estimated cost of $19,500,000, and says the commerce of the river would certainly justify the expenditure.

The Secretary of War has sent to Congress two reports on Kentucky river improvements. The first is a survey of the Licking river from its mouth, opposite Cincinnati, to Falmouth in Pendleton county. The report states that the cost of a lock and dam at Three-mile Ripple and other improvements would be $1,475,000, with an annual fund of $25,000 to be levied on the river.

The engineer does not believe the work is worthy of immediate undertaking. The other report relates to the protection of the Ohio river, below Cincinnati. A plan for the protection of the river front is proposed at a cost of $100,000. The engineer states, however, that the protection is not only for property of individuals, and if the Government should undertake the work at all a specific appropriation should be made, and funds should not be taken from the allotment of other general river funds.

Captain Oscar F. Barrett has just begun the construction of two immense square-ended freight barges for use in his freight business, and a number of coal barges. The freight barges will be 30 feet long and 32 feet wide and will carry 1,100 tons. The coal barges will be 140 feet long, 28 feet wide and 7½ feet deep. Captain Barrett does not believe in the present size coal barges, 125 by 26 feet, 8½ feet deep, as it takes too much water for them to float in. The barges he will build will carry as much coal and will draw only 5½ feet of water when they are loaded to their deepest. He says he can turn out a barge every five days at his Levana plant, and that he has lumber enough for twenty-five coal barges, besides taking care of all his contracts and outside work. Captain Barrett has been somewhat handicapped in his coal business this season for lack of barges, but will be in good shape for next season.
